The key is the continual follow-up to ensure actions occur. The final element of accountability is the lack of consequences where there is continued failure to achieve agreed outcomes. This is where firms struggle the most. However, without consequences accountability can lack teeth.

The struggle for accountability - For Accountants

Accountability is not a sign of weakness but a mark of courage and boldness. It testifies of the soul's willingness to live as a child of light. In the moments when I expected judgment and shaming, Jo would constantly tell me that his view of me has never changed and that he still loved me for who I was.
